

NOVEMBER

New Jersey Symphony Community Partners Monthly Highlights

This month, musicians served more than 2,000 community members of all ages, through 11 events across 3 New Jersey counties.

Made possible with generous support from the MCJ Amelior Foundation.

PG Chambers School

Over the past month, Kathleen Nester, Juan Esteban Martinez, Andy Adelson, Bob Wagner and Larry DiBello made four visits to PG Chambers School both individually and as a group. PG Chambers School is a school and therapy center in Cedar Knolls, NJ dedicated solely to children with physical and cognitive disabilities. This mini-residency concluded with a woodwind quintet performance of Peter and the Wolf.

Amadeus Circle Luncheon

On November 5, string quartet players JoAnna Farrer, Helen Vassiliou, Frank Foerster and Hyewon Kim charmed guests at the Amadeus Circle Donor Appreciation Luncheon. With a gorgeous panoramic view of NYC as their backdrop, the musicians performed Mendelssohn (sister and brother) and Dvořák selections. Guests enjoyed hearing musical context eloquently delivered.

Visiting Nurse Association Health Group

On November 27, the same group of musicians gave an extended performance of these musical selections for healthcare workers this holiday season. This event was hosted by the Visiting Nurse Association Health Group for their front line care team.

Generously sponsored by Johnson & Johnson

Annual Meeting

On November 29, Xin Zhao and Frank Foerster charmed attendees of the New Jersey Symphony's Annual Meeting. Each year, governing members of the Symphony are invited to vote on the ballot of new and renewing trustees. The Turrell Fund graciously hosted the event this year at Van Vleck House and Gardens.

As always, thank you for your support of the Community Partners program – stay tuned for the next edition of Monthly Highlights!
