NJSO Youth Orchestras give winter concert

Performance showcases NJSO Youth Orchestras' four ensembles at Science Park High School in Newark on Dec 9

Presented by M&T Bank

NEWARK, NJ—The NJSO Youth Orchestras perform a winter concert on December 9 at 4 pm at Science Park High School in Newark. Presented by M&T Bank, the concert showcases the youth orchestra family's four ensembles—the Academy Orchestra, Chamber Orchestra, String Ensemble and Training Ensemble.

The Academy Orchestra (AO) performs under the baton of NJSO Youth Orchestras Artistic Director José Luis Domínguez. AO will perform Sibelius' Finlandia, the overture to Mozart's Don Giovanni and movements from Haydn's Symphony No. 104 and Berlioz's Symphonie Fantastique.

Chamber Orchestra (CO) conductor Henry Kao, an NJSO violist, leads the Chamber Orchestra in a pair of Mozart works—Divertimento No. 2, K. 138, and the first movement of Symphony No. 25, K. 183. The String Ensemble (SE), led by NJSO first violinist Naomi Youngstein, performs Mozart's Viennese Sonatina No. 1, Charpentier's Te Deum and selections from Mussorgsky's Pictures at an Exhibition.

Domínguez leads the Training Ensemble (TE)—one of the two programs that comprise the Music Advancement for Newark-area Youth (MANY) partnership between NJPAC and the NJSO—in pieces including Balmages' "Pepperoni Pizza Rock" and Newbold's "Wild Western Frontier."

All tickets for the winter concert are $5 and are available for purchase by phone at 1.800.ALLEGRO (255.3476).

NJSO YOUTH ORCHESTRAS Part of the NJSO Academy

The NJSO Youth Orchestras give qualified middle- and high-school students—especially African-American and Latino youth in the Greater Newark area—unparalleled opportunities to achieve personal and musical excellence. Coaching by NJSO musicians and a supportive peer-to-peer environment provide quality learning and performing experiences and build a unique culture of collaboration. The achievements of this program and its impact on the lives of these young musicians have received national recognition from the President's Committee on the Arts and Humanities.

Four distinct ensembles—the Academy Orchestra, Chamber Orchestra, String Ensemble and Training Ensemble—perform two full concerts each year and participate in masterclasses and workshops with renowned guest artists. In addition, the Training Ensemble offers joint instructional and performance opportunities with its sister program, the NJPAC Symphonic Band. Through this partnership (known as Music Advancement for Newark-area Youth, or MANY), the two organizations lay the foundation for students' membership in their more advanced ensembles.

The NJSO Youth Orchestras annually serve more than 200 students from 11 counties across northern and central New Jersey.

Students who play orchestral instruments can apply for membership in the NJSO Youth Orchestras. For more information, visit njsymphony.org/youthorchestras.

MUSIC ADVANCEMENT FOR NEWARK AREA YOUTH (MANY)

A partnership designed to provide students in the Newark area with high-quality instrumental music instruction

Initiated by two of New Jersey's premier performing arts organizations—New Jersey Performing Arts Center (NJPAC) and New Jersey Symphony Orchestra (NJSO)—MANY offers programs for beginning and experienced instrumental music students alike.

Participants study string, woodwind, brass and percussion instruments to develop musical and instrumental proficiency while building leadership skills. MANY also aims to prepare young instrumentalists for acceptance into performance-based educational programs within the community, including the Arts High School Orchestra and Concert Band, Newark School of the Arts, NJPAC Brick City Jazz Orchestra, Wells Fargo Jazz for Teens program and NJSO Youth Orchestras.

Annually serving more than 150 students, MANY bridges two programs: the NJPAC Symphonic Band and the NJSO Training Ensemble. The NJPAC Symphonic Band, for grades 5–8, is designed for students with little or no prior instrumental experience and provides a musical foundation in woodwinds, brass and percussion. The NJSO Training Ensemble, for grades 5–10, provides intensive musical instruction and leadership development to advanced beginner and intermediate string students.

NJSO ACADEMY

Through the education programs that comprise the NJSO Academy, the New Jersey Symphony Orchestra provides intensive coaching and instruction for musicians of all ages. The lauded youth orchestra program, El Sistema-modeled NJSO CHAMPS (Character, Achievement and Music Project), NJSO Edward T. Cone Composition Institute, NJSO Coach-in-Residence Program and customized in-school clinics and master classes create participatory learning environments across the state that foster meaningful connections with live music.
