

An Afternoon in Old Europe, Without Leaving Morristown

Saturday, November 7, 2026
Morristown, NJ

Spend an inspiring day exploring the fascinating world of music, innovation, and performance! Start the day at the Morris Museum in Morristown, NJ and tour the renowned Murtoth D. Guinness Collection of historic mechanical musical instruments and automata, home to more than 750 extraordinary mechanical marvels spanning 400 years.

Following the museum visit, you'll enjoy a two-course dinner at Stirling Tavern in downtown Morristown. Then it's a short walk to Mayo Performing Arts Center where you'll conclude the evening with travel writer Rick Steves and the New Jersey Symphony. This unique concert pairs Europe's most stirring Romantic-era orchestral masterpieces with breathtaking high-definition cinematography and Rick Steves' engaging insights into European history, creating an inspiring musical and visual journey across the continent.
