

NEW JERSEY SYMPHONY

XIAN ZHANG MUSIC DIRECTOR

2025–26 Full Season Listing

Moonrise: A Celestial Celebration

Presented by the Union County Performing Arts Center

Rahway → Saturday, Oct 4, 7:30 pm

Gregory D. McDaniel conductor

Justin Jay Hines host

Eric Wyrick violin

New Jersey Symphony

Jessie Montgomery Starburst

Josef Strauss Music of the Spheres, Waltzes, Op. 235

Antonín Dvořák “Song to the Moon” from Rusalka, Op. 114

Claude Debussy / André Caplet Clair de Lune

Aaron Copland “Prairie Night and Celebration Dance” from Billy the Kid

Glenn Miller Moonlight Serenade

Henry Mancini Moon River

Gus Edwards / William Ryden “By the Light of the Silvery Moon”

Giacomo Puccini / Christopher Palmer La Bohème Fantasy

John Williams “Adventures on Earth” from E.T. the Extra-Terrestrial

In honor of the Museum of the Moon landing at the Union County Performing Arts Center’s Main Stage, the New Jersey Symphony presents a captivating evening of orchestral music celebrating our celestial neighbor. From orchestral masterworks like Claude Debussy’s Clair de Lune and Jessie Montgomery’s Starburst, to popular favorites like Glenn Miller’s Moonlight Serenade and music from Moonstruck and E.T. the Extra-Terrestrial, this program, conducted by New Jersey Symphony Colton Conducting Fellow Gregory D. McDaniel, has something for everyone!

For tickets, go to ucpac.org or call the UCPAC Box Office at 732.499.8226.

Presented by the Union County Performing Arts Center.

Gregory D. McDaniel is the 2025–26 Colton Conducting Fellow, made possible by the generous support of Judy and Stewart Colton.

TwoSet Violin with the New Jersey Symphony

Part of the TwoSet Violin World Tour

Newark → Sunday, Oct 5, 2 pm

TwoSet Violin

Maurice Cohn conductor

New Jersey Symphony

World-famous YouTube classical music comedy duo TwoSet Violin take the stage with the New Jersey Symphony for a wide-ranging night of musical fun! Violinists Eddy Chen and Brett Yang will take their unique brand of earnest and silly musical comedy to a new level in this performance, with the backing of a full symphony orchestra.

Opening Weekend: Tchaikovsky's Piano Concerto No. 1

New Jersey Symphony Classical

Newark → Friday, Oct 10, 7:30 pm

Red Bank → Saturday, Oct 11, 7:30 pm

Newark → Sunday, Oct 12, 2 pm

Xian Zhang conductor

Joyce Yang piano

New Jersey Symphony

Jessie Montgomery Hymn for Everyone

We launch the season with Montgomery's open-arms musical welcome. In her Hymn for Everyone you'll hear an echo of "Lift Every Voice and Sing," often called the Black National Anthem.

Pyotr Ilyich Tchaikovsky Piano Concerto No. 1

Slammed as a flop at its premiere, Tchaikovsky more than had the last laugh: here's jaw-dropping virtuosity for the soloist, sweeping melodies for the orchestra, and an audience favorite around the world.

Antonín Dvořák Symphony No. 8

Dvořák's pen might as well have been a paint brush. In his tuneful Eighth you can practically see autumn's most vivid colors and the heart-melting glow of an October sunset.

Disney's Fantasia in Concert

New Jersey Symphony at the Movies

Morristown → Thursday, Oct 23, 7 pm

Red Bank → Saturday, Oct 25, 2 pm

New Brunswick → Sunday, Oct 26, 2 pm

Constantine Kitsopoulos conductor

New Jersey Symphony

Experience Disney's groundbreaking marriage of symphonic music and animation, Fantasia. Beloved repertoire from the original 1940 version and Fantasia 2000, including The Sorcerer's Apprentice, Beethoven's Fifth Symphony, and The Nutcracker Suite, will be performed by the New Jersey Symphony while Disney's stunning footage is shown on the big screen. Enjoy iconic moments and childhood favorites like never before!

Presentation licensed by Disney Concerts.

The October 26 performance is presented in collaboration with State Theatre New Jersey.

Beethoven X Beyoncé

Northeast Premiere | Fusion of Beethoven's Seventh Symphony & Beyoncé's Greatest Hits

Newark → Friday, Oct 24, 7:30 pm

Steve Hackman conductor & creator

Malia Civetz vocalist

Brayla Cook vocalist

Brooke Simpson vocalist

TaRon Lockett drums

Justin Goldner guitar & keyboard

Dmitry Gorodetsky bass

New Jersey Symphony

GIRLS. They run the world.... they turn up the night... and if you liked it, then you should have put a ring on it! The newest fusion production by Steve Hackman celebrates and elevates all things woman by combining pop's Queen with classical music's King: Beethoven and Beyoncé.

Beethoven's Seventh Symphony, the symphonic repertoire's most joyful and exuberant celebration of dance, is the canvas onto which fifteen of Beyoncé's most popular songs across her entire catalog are interwoven, including "Girls," "Crazy in Love," "Sorry," "Cuff It," "Single Ladies," and of course, "Texas Hold 'Em." The production's emotional peak is when two of the most recognizable melodies from each composer are intertwined: "Halo" and the hauntingly beautiful second movement of the Beethoven.

Three powerhouse female soloists, as well as a guest drummer, guitarist/keyboardist, and bassist, join the New Jersey Symphony for a night of musical magic.

Please note: This performance contains adult language and themes. Discretion is advised.

Kansas & the New Jersey Symphony Chamber Players
bergenPAC Presents: The Encore Series

Englewood → Sunday, Nov 2, 7 pm

Encore No. 1 Overture Presents: Kansas & the New Jersey Symphony Chamber Players

Kansas

New Jersey Symphony Chamber Players

An awe-inspiring concert that redefines what a live performance can be.

Step into a night of pure sonic magic as iconic classic rock group Kansas join forces with the world-class New Jersey Symphony Chamber Players for an electrifying symphonic experience—an exhilarating nod to the Boston Pops tradition blending classic rock and the symphony sounds on one stage.

Feel the power of timeless hit classics like:

1. Carry On Wayward Son
2. Dust in the Wind
3. Point of Know Return
4. Hold On
5. Fight Fire With Fire

For tickets, go to bergenpac.org or call the bergenPAC Box Office at 201.227.1030. A limited number of special soirée tickets that include premium orchestra seating and pre- and post-show cocktail receptions are available for purchase here.

Presented by the Bergen Performing Arts Center.

Rhapsody in Blue

Plus Works by Florence Price & Carlos Simon

Newark → Thursday, Nov 6, 1:30 pm

Princeton → Friday, Nov 7, 7:30 pm

Newark → Friday, Nov 8, 7:30 pm

New Brunswick → Sunday, Nov 9, 2 pm

Tito Muñoz conductor

Michelle Cann piano

New Jersey Symphony

Florence Price Piano Concerto in One Movement

An American genius, Florence Price mixes luscious lyricism with ragtime stomp. This recently unearthed gem won Cann—the leading interpreter of Price’s piano music—a 2023 GRAMMY.

George Gershwin Rhapsody in Blue

United Airlines knows a good tune when it hears one, and that melody is the heartbeat of Gershwin’s classic. But not before the famous swooping clarinet solo gets this piece of the Roaring Twenties underway.

Carlos Simon Zodiac (Northeast Premiere, New Jersey Symphony Co-Commission)

Carlos Simon is one of America's leading contemporary composers, and in his latest music, a proud co-commission of the New Jersey Symphony, Simon gives voice to all 12 zodiac signs—the music at turns fiery, ethereal, and soaring.

Aaron Copland Suite from Billy the Kid

Cowboy songs, folk tunes, and a visionary composer—all the ingredients that made Copland's wild-west ballet a hit in the '30s and a favorite still.

The November 6 Relaxed Performance is promoted in partnership with Alzheimer's New Jersey.

Discover Rhapsody in Blue New Jersey Symphony Family Concert

Newark → Saturday, Nov 8, 2 pm

Tito Muñoz conductor

Bill Barclay host

Michelle Cann piano

New Jersey Symphony

George Gershwin Rhapsody in Blue

Aaron Copland Suite from Billy the Kid

Discover what makes a live orchestra concert so special. We'll take a deep dive into one of the greatest American piano concertos, Gershwin's Rhapsody in Blue, followed by Copland's lively Suite from Billy the Kid.

Inspired by Leonard Bernstein's masterful way of putting young audiences at the center of music-making, this interactive concert will feature inside tips, listening cues, and fun facts that make for the perfect Saturday afternoon family outing!

This will be a Relaxed Performance, designed to accommodate the differing needs of our patrons of all abilities, including individuals with autism, sensory sensitivities, or cognitive and physical differences. This concert support the New Jersey Symphony's mission to make orchestral music accessible to all by removing barriers often found in traditional concert settings. Audience members are encouraged to enter and exit the concert hall as needed throughout the performance and bring comfort items like sensory tools or stuffed animals that will aid in enhancing your musical experience! Accommodations such as large-print programs, sensory guides, a relaxation room, and more are also available.

Please note: If you are someone who prefers silence when you are enjoying a concert, this performance may not be the best fit for you. There may be movement, vocalizations, and other sounds throughout the hall. The shared expectation for all attendees is to help foster a warm, non-judgmental, and accepting atmosphere for everyone.

This New Jersey Symphony Family Concert is presented in NJPAC's Prudential Hall.

This concert is promoted in partnership with Girl Scouts Heart of New Jersey and A. Harry Moore Laboratory School.

Projections and slides for this concert are produced by Concert Theatre Works.

Elf in Concert

New Jersey Symphony at the Movies

Newark → Saturday, Dec 6, 2 pm

Red Bank → Sunday, Dec 7, 2 pm

Conner Gray Covington conductor

New Jersey Symphony

Buddy was accidentally transported to the North Pole as a toddler and raised to adulthood among Santa's elves. Unable to shake the feeling that he doesn't fit in, the adult Buddy travels to New York, in full elf uniform, in search of his real father. This holiday season, relive this heartwarming holiday classic on a giant screen as every note of John Debney's wonderful score is played live to picture in: Elf in Concert!

Presentation licensed by CineConcerts.

Rated PG. ELF and all related characters and elements © & ™
New Line Productions, Inc. (s25)

The Yuletide Carolers pre-concert performances are sponsored by The GenWealth Group.

New Jersey Ballet's The Nutcracker with the New Jersey Symphony

Presented by New Jersey Ballet

Morristown → Friday, Dec 12–Saturday, Dec 27

Constantine Kitsopoulos conductor

Brent Chancellor conductor (December 19 & 20 concerts only)

New Jersey Ballet

New Jersey Symphony

Pytor Ilyich Tchaikovsky The Nutcracker

Based on The Nutcracker and the Mouse King by E.T.A. Hoffman

New Jersey Ballet's The Nutcracker is the longest running original professional production in the state. The production debuted in Millburn in 1971 with international star of New York City Ballet Edward Villella as the Cavalier. Since then, the company has given approximately 800 performances in theatres throughout New Jersey, with more than 5,000 dancers and children, and over a million viewers. Many in the audience who saw the production as children now bring their own children and grandchildren to see this cherished holiday tradition.

New Jersey Ballet's The Nutcracker at MPAC will feature the New Jersey Symphony, under the baton of Constantine Kitsopoulos. When the curtain rises, audiences in Morristown can expect the eye-popping special effects, brilliant dancing, glorious costumes, and the magic and pantomime that has inspired critics to call it "A spectacle that never seems to age...magic that should go on and on," and "One of the best...as good as it gets."

For tickets, buy online at mayoarts.org or contact the Mayo Performing Arts Center box office at 973.539.8008.

Presented by New Jersey Ballet, in collaboration with the Mayo Performing Arts Center and the New Jersey Symphony.

Handel's Messiah

New Jersey Symphony Holiday Tradition

Princeton → Friday, Dec 19, 7:30 pm - Richardson Auditorium in Princeton

Princeton → Saturday, Dec 20, 7:30 pm - Richardson Auditorium in Princeton

Newark → Sunday, Dec 21, 7 pm - Cathedral Basilica of the Sacred Heart

Anthony Parther conductor

Caitlin Gotimer soprano

Maria Dominique Lopez mezzo-soprano

Orson Van Gay II tenor

Shyheim Selvan Hinnant bass-baritone

Montclair State University Singers | Heather J. Buchanan, director

New Jersey Symphony

George Frideric Handel Messiah

Handel's Messiah embraces every emotion, from the first voice singing "Comfort ye," inviting you to step aside from the season's frenzy, to the riveting Amen Chorus at the end. In between are moments of transcendence, loss, and deeply-felt awe—what makes a classic a classic.

Hollywood in New Jersey

Music from How the West Was Won, The Greatest Story Ever Told & More

Newark → Saturday, Jan 3, 8 pm

David Newman conductor

Sebastian Knauer piano

New Jersey Symphony

Hooray for Hollywood! Hear some of the most iconic film music of all time performed by the New Jersey Symphony. Guest conductor and Oscar-nominated film composer David Newman carries on the legacy of his father, Alfred Newman, the golden-age composer of legendary film scores (and creator of the famous 20th Century Fox fanfare). Award-winning German pianist Sebastian Knauer joins the orchestra for an evening of silver-screen favorites. You'll hear music from a variety of composers, including the Newman family, who have amassed 13 Academy Awards and an incredible 93 nominations. A Beautiful Mind, Spartacus, The Robe, How the West Was Won, Basic Instinct — and more!

For tickets, go to njpac.org or call the NJPAC Box Office at 1.888.696.5722.

Presented by the New Jersey Performing Arts Center.

Randall Goosby Returns

New Jersey Symphony Classical

New Brunswick → Thursday, Jan 8, 7 pm

Princeton → Friday, Jan 9, 7:30 pm

Newark → Saturday, Jan 10, 7:30 pm

New Brunswick → Sunday, Jan 11, 2 pm

Xian Zhang conductor

Randall Goosby violin

New Jersey Symphony

Jean Sibelius Finlandia

Eight minutes that saved a nation. When Finland wrestled itself free from the Russian bear, Sibelius' music was the Finns' call to courage.

Samuel Barber Violin Concerto

The most gorgeous violin concerto of the 20th century: the first two movements exquisitely touching, and the third a wild sprint for only the bravest of soloists.

Pytor Ilyich Tchaikovsky Symphony No. 2, "Ukrainian"

Three Ukrainian folksongs were all Tchaikovsky needed for inspiration. From them, he spun his most joyful symphony.

Elden Ring: Symphonic Adventure

Based Off the Award-Winning Fantasy Video Game

Newark → Saturday, Jan 24, 2 pm & 7:30 pm

Eric Roth conductor

Ember Choral Arts | Deborah Simpkin King, artistic director
New Jersey Symphony

The fantasy video game Elden Ring comes to life with the New Jersey Symphony performing its gorgeous score. Immerse yourself in the noble quest of the Tarnished as cinematic gameplay sequences play on the big screen, synced with dramatic lighting and sound effects. Whether you're a fan of the game, or simply love the epic beauty of orchestral music, this adventure is for you. Don your Elden Ring cosplay, and we'll meet you in the Lands Between.

For tickets, go to njpac.org or call the NJPAC Box Office at 1.888.696.5722.

Presented and produced by Bandai Namco, FromSoftware Inc. and Overlook Events.

Presented by the New Jersey Performing Arts Center.

Romeo & Juliet

Featuring The Shakespeare Theatre of New Jersey

Newark → Thursday, Jan 29, 1:30 pm

Newark → Friday, Jan 30, 7:30 pm

Red Bank → Saturday, Jan 31, 7:30 pm

Newark → Sunday, Feb 1, 2 pm

Xian Zhang conductor

The Shakespeare Theatre of New Jersey | Brian B. Crowe, director

Earl Baker Jr. Friar Laurence, Lord Montague

Clark Carmichael Mercutio, Prince

Dino Curia Benvolio

Jesmille Darbouze Lady Capulet

Isaac Hickox-Young Romeo

Hassiem Muhammad Tybalt, Paris

David Shih Capulet

Alison Weller Nurse

Billie Wyatt Juliet

Jason Flamos lighting designer

Rod Kinter fight director

Daniel Ciba costume designer

Steve Beckel technical director

Jenna Gregson stage manager

Mikki Monfalcone assistant stage manager

New Jersey Symphony

Pytor Ilyich Tchaikovsky Romeo and Juliet Fantasy Overture

Tchaikovsky gives you all the passion and drama of Shakespeare's two young lovers, as the New Jersey Symphony becomes a storyteller in real time.

Sergei Prokofiev Selections from Romeo and Juliet

Considered too difficult, even undanceable at its unveiling, Prokofiev's ballet with scene after scene of strikingly original music soon became the treasure of every ballet house the world over.

2026 Lunar New Year Celebration

Celebration of the Year of the Horse

Newark → Saturday, Feb 7, 7:30 pm

Sunny Xia conductor

Haochen Zhang piano

Peking University Alumni Chorus

Starry Arts Children's Chorus | Rebecca Shen, director

Edison Chinese School Lion Dance Team

New Jersey Symphony

Li Huanzhi Spring Festival Overture

Franz Liszt Piano Concerto No. 1

Choi Sunghwan "Arirang Fantasy"

Traditional / Anqi Wang Hulunbuir Grassland

Li Shutong / Nicholas Hersh Farewell at Long Pavilion

Johann Strauss Jr. Voices of Spring

Georges Bizet "Farandole" from L'Arlésienne

Georges Bizet "Choeur des gamins" from Carmen

Enjoy an evening of community and cultural exchange that is wonderful for families and children, as we celebrate the Year of the Horse. Seattle Symphony Associate Conductor Sunny Xia and Van Cliburn International Piano Competition Winner Haochen Zhang make their New Jersey Symphony debuts in this festive concert that celebrates music from East and West.

The 2026 Lunar New Year Celebration is generously sponsored in part by an anonymous donor in honor of Music Director Xian Zhang.

Beethoven's Fifth Symphony

Time For Three Performs Contact

Morristown → Thursday, Feb 26, 7 pm

Newark → Friday, Feb 27, 7:30 pm

Newark → Sunday, Mar 1, 2 pm

Markus Stenz conductor

Time For Three

Ranaan Meyer double bass | Nick Kendall violin | Charles Yang violin

New Jersey Symphony

Richard Wagner Prelude to Act I of Lohengrin

It begins with the strings alone playing a whisperquiet passage of holy serenity. Soon the whole orchestra joins and builds in a full-throated cry. Wagner's operatic stage is set for the arrival of the knight Lohengrin sent on a mission from God.

Kevin Puts Contact

Time for Three, a self-described "classically trained garage band," brings you the GRAMMY Award-winning concerto written for them by Pulitzer Prize-winning composer Kevin Puts. Created during the isolation of the early pandemic, Contact is "an expression of yearning for the fundamental need" of human connection.

Ludwig van Beethoven Symphony No. 5

Four notes—dah, dah, dah, DAH—launched Beethoven's Fifth in 1808 and have stamped all of western classical music since.

Harry Potter and the Sorcerer's Stone™ in Concert

New Jersey Symphony at the Movies

Newark → Saturday, Mar 7, 2 pm & pm

Constantine Kitsopoulos conductor

New Jersey Symphony

Relive the film that started it all. Watch the wand choose the wizard, a troll run amok and magic mirrors in high-definition while a live orchestra performs John Williams' iconic score. Don't miss this once-in-a-lifetime event as Harry, Ron, Hermione and all your favorite characters return to the screen and enchant the world all over again.

Presentation licensed by CineConcerts.

All characters and elements © & ™ Warner Bros. Entertainment Inc. Publishing Rights © JKR.

Presented in collaboration with the New Jersey Performing Arts Center.

Bartók's Concerto for Orchestra

New Jersey Symphony Classical

Newark → Thursday, Mar 12, 1:30 pm

Princeton → Friday, Mar 13, 7:30 pm
Red Bank → Saturday, Mar 14, 7:30 pm
New Brunswick → Sunday, Mar 15, 2 pm

Markus Stenz conductor
Albert Cano Smit piano
New Jersey Symphony

Louise Farrenc Overture No. 1 in E Minor
Filled with drama and excitement, this energetic and lyrical work captivates with its bold spirit and irresistible charm.

Frédéric Chopin Piano Concerto No. 2
There are moments here that make time, and your breath, stand still. If ever you need evidence of the human spirit's capacity for beauty, look to this remarkable creation of 20-year-old Chopin.

Béla Bartók Concerto for Orchestra
Every section of the orchestra gets the spotlight to dazzling effect, and the Concerto's last moments are some of the most thrilling in all classical music.

Albert Cano Smit's appearance is dedicated to the memory of Stanlee and Florence Kissel.

The March 12 Relaxed Performance is promoted in partnership with Alzheimer's New Jersey and the New Jersey Association for Music Therapy.

Icons of American Ballet with the New Jersey Symphony Presented by New Jersey Ballet

Morristown → Friday, Mar 20, 7:30 pm
Morristown → Saturday, Mar 21, 2 pm

Constantine Kitsopoulos conductor
New Jersey Ballet
New Jersey Symphony

George Balanchine Serenade
Jerome Robbins In the Night
Twyla Tharp *Nine Sinatra Songs

Nine Sinatra Songs will be performed to recordings of Frank Sinatra.*

New Jersey Ballet presents Icons of American Ballet—a vibrant program celebrating groundbreaking choreographers who have shaped the landscape of American dance. The performance opens with George Balanchine's iconic Serenade, a poetic and sweeping work set to Tchaikovsky's Serenade for Strings. Jerome Robbins' In the Night follows, a tender and emotionally rich ballet set to four nocturnes by Chopin, where three couples explore the many shades of romantic relationships beneath a starlit sky. The program concludes with Twyla Tharp's stylish and witty Nine Sinatra Songs, where couples dance through the complexities of love to the timeless voice of Frank Sinatra. Together, these three works offer an unforgettable afternoon of elegance, emotion, and innovation.

For tickets, buy online at mayoarts.org or contact the Mayo Performing Arts Center box office at 973.539.8008.

Presented by New Jersey Ballet, in collaboration with the Mayo Performing Arts Center and the New Jersey Symphony.

Sleeping Beauty with the New Jersey Symphony

Presented by New Jersey Ballet

Morristown → Friday, Mar 20, 7:30 pm

Morristown → Saturday, Mar 21, 2 pm

Constantine Kitsopoulos conductor

New Jersey Ballet

New Jersey Symphony

Pyotr Ilyich Tchaikovsky Sleeping Beauty

Pyotr Ilyich Tchaikovsky's The Sleeping Beauty is one of the most famous ballets of all time, and is a longtime favorite of children and families alike. Watch as the New Jersey Ballet brings the timeless fairytale classic to life in this full-length production at the Mayo Performing Arts Center, featuring the live performance of the score from the New Jersey Symphony.

For tickets, buy online at mayoarts.org or contact the Mayo Performing Arts Center box office at 973.539.8008.

Presented by New Jersey Ballet, in collaboration with the Mayo Performing Arts Center and the New Jersey Symphony.

Beethoven's "Pastoral" Symphony

New Jersey Symphony Classical

Newark → Friday, Mar 27, 7:30 pm

Newark → Saturday, Mar 28, 7:30 pm

Morristown → Sunday, Mar 29, 2 pm

Xian Zhang conductor

Juan Esteban Martinez clarinet

New Jersey Symphony

Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart Divertimento in D Major, K. 136

The spotlight opens on the New Jersey Symphony's virtuoso strings playing the sunniest music Mozart ever created.

Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart Clarinet Concerto

Principal Clarinet Juan Esteban Martinez will shine in this sunny crown jewel of the clarinet repertoire, which was written for an earlier iteration of the modern clarinet.

Ludwig van Beethoven Symphony No. 6, “Pastoral”

His greatest inspiration came from long walks in nature, score paper, and pencil stuffed in his pocket. Beethoven takes us with him in his Sixth, his music full of open-air melodies, and the drama of a ferocious storm.

Discover Beethoven’s “Pastoral” Symphony

New Jersey Symphony Family Concert

Newark → Saturday, Mar 28, 2 pm

Xian Zhang conductor

Bill Barclay host

New Jersey Symphony

Ludwig van Beethoven Symphony No. 6, “Pastoral”

Discover the storytelling power of classical music! Beethoven’s “Pastoral” Symphony was one of his only works that depicts very specific scenes and storylines, which we’ll dive into measure by measure in this concert.

Inspired by Leonard Bernstein’s masterful way of putting young audiences at the center of music-making, this interactive concert will feature inside tips, listening cues, and fun facts that make for the perfect Saturday afternoon family outing!

This will be a Relaxed Performance, designed to accommodate the differing needs of our patrons of all abilities, including individuals with autism, sensory sensitivities, or cognitive and physical differences. This concert support the New Jersey Symphony’s mission to make orchestral music accessible to all by removing barriers often found in traditional concert settings. Audience members are encouraged to enter and exit the concert hall as needed throughout the performance and bring comfort items like sensory tools or stuffed animals that will aid in enhancing your musical experience! Accommodations such as large-print programs, sensory guides, a relaxation room, and more are also available.

Please note: If you are someone who prefers silence when you are enjoying a concert, this performance may not be the best fit for you. There may be movement, vocalizations, and other sounds throughout the hall. The shared expectation for all attendees is to help foster a warm, non-judgmental, and accepting atmosphere for everyone.

This New Jersey Symphony Family Concert is presented in NJPAC’s Prudential Hall.

This concert is promoted in partnership with Girl Scouts Heart of New Jersey.

Projections and slides for this concert are produced by Concert Theatre Works.

Xian Conducts Prokofiev & Strauss

New Jersey Symphony Classical

Newark → Friday, Apr 10, 7:30 pm

Red Bank → Saturday, Apr 11, 7:30 pm

Newark → Sunday, Apr 12, 2 pm

Xian Zhang conductor (April 11 & 12 performances)

Gregory D. McDaniel conductor (April 10 performance)

Francesca Deگو violín

New Jersey Symphony

Anton Webern Im Sommerwind

A lovingly lush hymn to the charms of summer, written just before Webern helped stand traditional classical music on its head.

Sergei Prokofiev Violin Concerto No. 2

It opens with a wisp of melancholy Russian folksong and closes with castanets and Spanish flair, creating fireworks for a world-class violinist and orchestra.

Richard Strauss Ein Heldenleben

Orchestras love this ode to “A Hero’s Life” for its bold, voluptuous sweep, created by Strauss as a musical pat on his own back.

Gregory D. McDaniel is the 2025–26 Colton Conducting Fellow, made possible by the generous support of Judy and Stewart Colton.

Mozart’s Requiem

New Jersey Symphony Classical

Newark → Thursday, Apr 16, 1:30 pm

Newark → Saturday, Apr 18, 7:30 pm

New Brunswick → Sunday, Apr 19, 2 pm

Xian Zhang conductor

Mei Gui Zhang soprano

Taylor Raven mezzo-soprano

Eric Ferring tenor

Dashon Burton baritone

Montclair State University Chorale | Heather J. Buchanan, Director

New Jersey Symphony

Gabriel Fauré Pavane

A slowly winding melody that started as a simple little five-minute piano solo. But when Fauré orchestrated his Pavane and added the rich sound of a chorus, he made magic and his greatest hit.

Gustav Mahler Songs of a Wayfarer

Come enjoy one of the finest voices in America: bass-baritone Dashon Burton sings the suite of beautiful songs Mahler wrote as he took solace in nature after being spurned in love.

Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart Requiem

A swansong full of fire, grace, and a transcendent prayer that the human spirit will live on. Mozart's Requiem was left maddeningly incomplete at his all-too-early death, but is nevertheless his final masterpiece.

The April 16 Relaxed Performance is promoted in partnership with Best Buddies New Jersey and the John J. Cali School of Music at Montclair State University.

The April 18 performance is presented in collaboration with the New Jersey Performing Arts Center.

Mozart's The Magic Flute In Collaboration with Undead Arts

Jersey City → Saturday, May 2, 3 pm

Jersey City → Sunday, May 3, 3 pm

Gregory D. McDaniel conductor

Undead Arts

Edward Washington II Tamino

Brenna Markey Pamina

Matthew Ciuffitelli Papageno

Yohji Daquio Queen of the Night

Patrick Scully Sarastro

Aja Brimm Papagena

Holden Green Monastatos

Reever Julian The Speaker

The Three Ladies

Molly Dunn

Kelsey Robertson

Rachelle Pike

Men in Armour

Cristóbal Arias

Sung Shin

The Three Spirits

Evangeline Lalande (May 2 performance)

Sophie Gaeta (May 2 performance)

Maeve George (May 2 performance)

Iris Seminowicz (May 3 performance)

Elizabeth Larsen (May 3 performance)

Maya Stimson (May 3 performance)

Teen Ensemble

Delilah Benenati

Ruby Holmes

McKenzie Maurent

Rising Voices Youth Chorus | Michelle Pérez, director

Members of the New Jersey Symphony

From the creators of Jersey City's beloved Zombie Opera, Undead Arts, in collaboration with the New Jersey Symphony, presents a family-friendly reimagining of Mozart's The Magic Flute. Set in the New Jersey Pine Barrens and told through the eyes of Jersey City children, audiences will step into the iconic atrium at Harborside — with its lush greenery and stunning skylight — and enter a magical world of spirits, witches, and the infamous Jersey Devil. The production features world-class musicians from the New Jersey Symphony, a cast of international opera singers, and a children's chorus drawn from Jersey City public schools.

Undead Arts believes every child deserves a front-row seat to imagination. All children attend our performances free of charge, ensuring that cost or circumstance never stands in the way of creativity and joy.

Produced by Undead Arts founders Molly Dunn, Katy Gardiner, and Catriona Rubenis-Stevens, the production is directed by Rubenis-Stevens, with art direction by Gardiner and a reimagined story and script by Undead Arts. Members of the New Jersey Symphony Chamber Players will be led by Maestro Gregory D. McDaniel.

Gregory D. McDaniel is the 2025–26 Colton Conducting Fellow, made possible by the generous support of Judy and Stewart Colton.

Joshua Bell Leads Mendelssohn's "Italian"

New Jersey Symphony Classical

Newark → Thursday, May 14, 1:30 pm

Princeton → Friday, May 15, 7:30 pm

Newark → Saturday, May 16, 7:30 pm

Morristown → Sunday, May 17, 2 pm

Joshua Bell conductor & violin

New Jersey Symphony

Felix Mendelssohn The Hebrides (Fingal's Cave)

The music swells and surges just as the waves off Scotland's coast carried the young Mendelssohn past moody cliffs and caves and sent him reaching for his score paper.

Camille Saint-Saëns Violin Concerto No. 3

One of Saint-Saëns' most treasured concertos, this is where superstar Joshua Bell stands and lets his Stradivarius violin shine in dramatic melodies and virtuosic displays.

Felix Mendelssohn Symphony No. 4, "Italian"

"The jolliest piece I've ever done," wrote an ecstatic young Mendelssohn to his parents back in Berlin, after arriving in Italy and falling in love with its sunshine, sidewalk tunes, coast, and effervescent colors—all of which he poured into his Fourth Symphony.

The May 16 performance is presented in collaboration with the New Jersey Performing Arts Center.

Star Wars: The Last Jedi in Concert

New Jersey Symphony at the Movies

Red Bank → Friday, May 29, 7:30 pm

Newark → Saturday, May 30, 7:30 pm

New Brunswick → Sunday, May 31, 2 pm

Nicholas Hersh conductor

New Jersey Symphony

Don't miss this big-screen battle with the score performed live by the New Jersey Symphony. The Resistance is in desperate need of help when they find themselves impossibly pursued by the First Order. While Rey travels to a remote planet called Ahch-To to recruit Luke Skywalker to the Resistance, Finn and Rose, a mechanic, go on their own mission in the hopes of helping the Resistance finally escape the First Order. But everyone finds themselves on the salt-planet of Crait for a last stand.

Presentation licensed by Disney Concerts in association with 20th Century Fox, LucasFilm Ltd., and Warner/Chappell Music.

© 2017 & TM LUCASFILM LTD. ALL RIGHTS RESERVED. © DISNEY RATED PG-13.

The May 31 performance is presented in collaboration with State Theatre New Jersey.

Season Finale: Symphonie fantastique

New Jersey Symphony Classical

New Brunswick → Thursday, June 4, 7 pm

Princeton → Friday, June 5, 7:30 pm

Red Bank → Saturday, June 6, 7:30 pm

Newark → Sunday, June 7, 2 pm

Xian Zhang conductor

Emanuel Ax piano

New Jersey Symphony

Allison Loggins-Hull New Work (World Premiere, New Jersey Symphony Commission)

You may have seen her performing with Lizzo at the GRAMMYS, or heard her on the soundtrack to The Lion King, or loved her Can You See? performed by the New Jersey Symphony last fall. Be the first to hear our Resident Artistic Partner's latest creation.

Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart Piano Concerto No. 22

Mozart in his late 20s took a tune he wrote when he was eight and turned it into this half-hour masterpiece, the second of its three movements so moving that its first audience demanded a repeat.

Hector Berlioz Symphonie fantastique

Smitten with unrequited love, Berlioz funneled all his frustrations and utter mind-blowing genius into a whirlwind of orchestral color.

Ben Folds with the New Jersey Symphony

Ben Folds Performs his Greatest Hits

Newark → Saturday, June 13, 7:30 pm

New Brunswick → Sunday, June 14, 2 pm

Ben Folds guest artist

Edwin Outwater conductor

New Jersey Symphony

Emmy-nominated singer-songwriter-composer Ben Folds joins the New Jersey Symphony for a unique and unforgettable performance of music from across his career. Widely regarded as one of the major musical influences of our generation, Folds' enormous body of genre-bending music includes pop albums with Ben Folds Five, multiple solo albums, and numerous collaborative records. His latest album, 2023's What Matters Most, is a blend of piano-driven pop rock songs, while his 2015 Concerto for Piano and Orchestra soared to #1 on both the Billboard classical and classical crossover charts. He released his first Christmas album in 2024 and last Fall recorded a live album slated for release in 2025 with the National Symphony Orchestra (NSO) at The Kennedy Center in Washington, D.C., where he served for eight years as the first artistic advisor to the NSO.

The June 14 performance is presented in collaboration with State Theatre New Jersey.